R2-D2 PERSONAL CASSETTE PLAYER

INSTRUCTIONS

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

TO OPERATE:

1. The R2-D2 Personal Cassette Player plays any standard cassette tape.
2. Open the cassette compartment by putting your fingers on the side of the front panel and pulling the compartment door open gently.

3. Insert the cassette into the brackets attached to the door, making sure that the tape is exposed to the left side of the player. It should fit exactly into the unit. Now, gently close the cassette compartment door. Don't force it shut! If the door doesn't close all the way, it means that the cassette tape is not inserted correctly. Remove the cassette and try again.

4. Press the button marked PLAY to turn on the R2-D2 Personal Cassette Player.
5. When you want to stop the cassette, press the STOP button. This will also turn off the unit.
6. If you want to skip ahead on the cassette, press the FAST FORWARD button. When you want to stop fast forwarding, you must press STOP. If you FAST FORWARD to the end of the cassette, it will not pop up by itself. Before you can play the tape again, you should press STOP and then press PLAY.

7. If you want to listen to the second side of the cassette, remove from player and turn the tape over.
8. Turn the VOLUME DIAL up to make the sounds louder or turn it down to make the sounds softer.

9. To use the headphones, make sure they are securely connected to the built-in jack. Adjust the size to fit your head by pulling out or pushing in each side of the metal band.

INSERTING THE BATTERIES

To insert the batteries, remove the battery compartment cover at the back of the unit. (To remove cover, push in direction of the arrow) Insert 2 x "AA"/LR6 batteries (not included), making sure to align "+" and "-" as shown.
